

The EMG, an association of the elexis AG, is a medium-sized, operationally independent engineering company in the region Olpe / Sauerland, Germany. With our holding companies at home and abroad about 800 employees are working for us worldwide.

For our quality management department in Wenden we are searching, as soon as possible, an engaged, goal- and result-oriented

Quality Engineer (m/f)

Your duties

- Organisation and realization of quality checkings
- Management of internal and external claims including correction and prevention measures
- Attendance of acceptance tests
- Organisation and realization of internal and external audits
- Further development of the QM system and the processes
- Realization of projects

Your profile

- Industrial education and further training to a certified mechanical engineer (m/f)
- Experiences in quality management
- Knowledge of certification acc. to DIN ISO 9001:2008
- Knowledge in welding and painting are useful
- Thinking and acting corporately
- Being proactive
- High degree of commitment and assertiveness
- Communicative and team-oriented
- High language skills in English
- Firm handling of MS Office

Contact

Is this position of interest to you?
If there are any further questions, please contact:

Mrs. Wörder, Human Resources Department, Phone: +49 2762 612-353

Please send your informative job application to:

EMG Automation GmbH
Personalwesen / Human Resources Department
Industriestr. 1
57482 Wenden, Germany

personal@emg-automation.com
www.emg-automation.com

