

EMG is looking for Service Technicians!

EMG USA Inc, is the subsidiary of German based EMG Automation GmbH within the elexis AG group. From our Cleveland location, we service the North American market. EMG has been growing for more than 70 years and has gained an excellent reputation with more than 1260 employees worldwide.

For our subsidiary EMG USA Inc. we are looking for:

Service Technicians – Automation/Electronics

Your tasks & responsibilities

- Installation supervision and commissioning of the EMG equipment and systems
- Function testing and optimization
- Instruct customer in function and operation of the equipment, perform final acceptance
- Replace parts and software moduls as needed, change software to match needed function
- Maintain and repair existing systems, regarding mechanics, electronics and software
- Evaluate condition and functionality of existing systems, recommend preventive maintenance
- Recommend spare parts and upgrades
- Willingness to travel 50% of your time.

Your knowledge

- Measuring and control technologies, electronic and software
- Hardware software interaction evaluation
- Read wire diagrams, make wiring changes as needed
- Understand PLC language
- Understand Mechanic and Hydraulic functions

Good MS-Office skills are required, working independently, great commitment to work and the ability to make confident decisions.

We offer an intensive job training, a fair performance based compensation, extended social and healthcare benefits, as well as continuing education for personal development.

Please send your résumé to:

EMG USA Inc.

Mr. Patric Jobst (Phone: +1 330 372 4418)
2458 Edison Blvd. • Twinsburg, OH 44087

patric.jobst@emg-automation.com

www.emg-automation.com

EMG.moving ahead.

eLEXIS_{group}